HILLCREST

Published by the Senior Class of

St. Joseph High School

Foreword

Graduation is the climax of four years of hard work mingled with laughter, parties, sports and studies, in which we gained a better knowledge of ourselves and our ideals. Each day we laid another brick in the foundation for our future lives--lives requiring a strong character, leadership and a clear knowledge of our faith. Now we are at the threshold of a new life and must say farewell to all those who have guided us through our many problems.

For the past few months most of us have been struggling with the "all important" question of what field of endeavor should I enter or what course of study should I pursue. Now with minds made up we look forward to making our decisions realities. May all of us enjoy the fruits of success.

In the near future we will be leaving St. Joseph High School for these new fields. We pray that God will bless us with good fortune in the coming years.

Dedication

It is with heartfelt gratitude that the Senior Class dedicates this 1953 HILLCREST, to you, our parents.

To gain the joy of seeing us graduate from a Catholic High School is the realization of your dreams. We realize you have sacrificed much in order to give us a good education. You have not only cared for our physical ills, but have guided us through the struggles and disappointments with which we were faced.

With God as our Guide and His Blessed Mother as our Mediatrix, we step forth to take our place in this world of turmoil, strengthened greatly through your efforts. We pray God will reward you for your sacrifices.

Administration

Our Spiritual Leaders

Through our four years at St. Joe High we have observed the tireless efforts of Father Ben and his able Assistants to make our school a credit to our community. Now we are starting a building program which will result in a much needed high school. It is through Father Ben's efforts that these improvements are constantly being made.

To you dear Father Ben, Father Ed, and Father Dennis we say "thanks" and may God reward you for your efforts.

Hillcrest Staff

For the past several months the HILLCREST Staff has been working earnestly on the 1953 yearbook. Every spare moment was spent in completing this book. We hope that you will enjoy reading it as much as we enjoyed compiling it.

Co-Editors N. Mish and G. Pieczynski pause a moment from their work to pose for the photographer. Without the efforts and sacrifice of time on the part of both, the 1953 HILLCREST would have been impossible.

Completing the layouts are G. Pieczynski, P. Raskey, D. Miller, and R. Jozwiak.

Doing copy work is some task as staff members N. Kott, G. Majewski, S. Maternoski, T. Thomas and N. Mish will testify.

THE HILLCREST Staff hard at work on copy and layouts at one of the regular Sunday sessions.

An adverbial clause is a clause that is used like an adverb. It modifies a verb. It is a dependent clause.

4. The Complex Sentence

We know that a simple sentence is made up of one subject and predicate. Therefore a sentence that contains an adjective clause or an adverbial clause cannot be called a simple sentence; for the principal clause, and the dependent clause contains another subject and predicate. What shall we call a sentence with more than one subject and predicate? A sentence that consists of a principal clause and one or more dependent clauses is called a complex sentence.

The goal was set at $250,000, but the amount raised in pledges far surpassed that amount. In the picture below are shown the volunteers from the parish, who acted as team chairmen. It is through the unselfish efforts of these men that the campaign was such a huge success.
